3. I informed Mr. Kirkpatrick that the bill establishing a Commission on Governmental Use of International Telecommunications, which has already passed the Senate, had been favorably reported by the House Foreign Affairs Committee on 30 July and would, in all probability, pass the House today. He will again mention it to the DCI.

* 5. After a conversation between Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. [] it was determined that Mr. [], of ONE, and I would be jointly responsible for seeing that appropriate briefings were laid on if desired for the Hickenlooper group prior to their departure for overseas on or about 24 August. I have secured a tentative itinerary from Mr. Allardice, Director of the Committee staff, who will accompany the group, and he informs me that the group will be on per diem rather than actual expenses. I have given the necessary information to Mr. [] of DD/I, who requested it in order to lay on the necessary arrangements.
